REDUCED RATES FOR SENIOR CITIZENS ATTENDING COMMUNITY COLLEGES

Ontario's community colleges, in keeping with their commitment to provide continuing education programs to citizens of their communities, are making efforts to offer tuition at nominal costs to senior citizens.

At the moment, courses offered at a reduced rate to senior citizens are mostly of a special-interest, non-credit nature. Listed below are community colleges, with an indication of course costs, where reduced rates apply.

Senior citizens are invited to contact their local community college for more specific information and for details of any changes in policy.

Senior citizens may also be eligible for financial assistance under the Ontario Student Assistance Program. OSAP provides loan/grant assistance for full-time studies at all public post-secondary institutions in Ontario and at universities elsewhere in Canada. For full-time study at private trade schools, loans only are available.

Financial aid may also be provided for part-time studies through loan and bursary programs.

Further information on financial assistance can be obtained from the Student Awards Branch of the Ministry of Colleges and Universities. Telephone 965-5241.
